

Become an Ambassador for Animal Welfare in Your Neighborhood

Do you wish you could adopt every animal without a home? While this might be an impossible dream, there are a lot of things you can do to improve the quality of life for animals in your community. From working with the Sullivan County Humane Society to getting your very own nonprofit off the ground, the sky's the limit! These resources are full of tips on supporting animal welfare in your community.

Helping From Home

You don't need any special qualifications to dive in and start helping animals in your area.

- Check out this list to find out which items animal shelters in your area might need.
- Want to adopt a pet from a shelter? This resource will help you prepare!
- You can help stray animals ethically - this guide explains how to accomplish this.

Support Other Organizations

If you want to connect with other people who care about animals as much as you do, consider getting involved with one of these groups.

- Do you have some cash to spare? Consider donating it to the Sullivan County Humane Society.
- You could make a charitable contribution to the River Valley Animal Protection League, or even become a foster “parent” for a pet!
- If you’re interested in helping out at an animal sanctuary, you might be a good fit for volunteering at Amazing Grace Animal Sanctuary.

Become a Changemaker

Ready to take things a step further for the sake of abandoned animals? You may be in a good position to start a nonprofit!

- Want to build the best possible team for your nonprofit? This resource is packed with great hiring tips!
- Follow these steps to legally establish your nonprofit.
- These fundraising recommendations will help you bring in more money to help animals.
- You can go the extra mile and host charity events to raise money, too!

Sometimes, you might be discouraged when you think about how many pets need loving homes. But you don’t have to give up on the cause. With these tips, you’ll be able to make a difference in the lives of lots of animals.

Want to go the extra mile for animals that need help? The Sullivan County Humane Society has volunteer opportunities for you! Email us today at sullivanhumane@hotmail.com to learn more.

Photo via Pexels